

ABSTRACT

A domain power notification system detects when a power domain experiences a power condition, such as lost power and low-5 voltage power, and communicates that information to the domains that communicate with the problem domain. As a result, the effected domains stop communicating with the problem domain without passing erroneous information.

10

10555826v1
072219-0278252 (P05047)
-19